General.

Bet types are subject to changes.

Notes: UNDER = LESS, OVER = MORE, Odd/Even: the score 0-0, zero corners, zero games etc. are always considered even, OT = ET overtime = extra time. The maximum payment limit is per Bet and in accordance with what is stated in our Company's regulations in 1.13. The maximum payout limit per slip is indicated on the bet slip.

Asian Handicap (can be offered in various sports)

Asian handicap markets are alternative markets where you can place a bet on a team with a head advantage/disadvantage over the other team. For the bet to be considered won, the stated lead advantage/disadvantage must be covered by the outcome of the event. In the Asian Handicap there is no draw, so there are only two possible outcomes. Asian handicaps can be integers, decimals, or a combination of the two. Depending on the selection of each Asian handicap (0.25, 0.50, 0.75, 1.00 etc.), the amount you bet is divided into equal parts and placed as two different bets.

Example 1: In the match LIVERPOOL vs CHELSEA if you place a -0.5 Asian Handicap bet on LIVERPOOL (home team) vs CHELSEA (away team), this means that LIVERPOOL starts the game with a 0.5 goal deficit and must beat CHELSEA by at least one (1) goal difference (official result), in order for your bet to be settled as won.

Example 2: In the same match (LIVERPOOL vs CHELSEA), if you place a -0.25 Asian Handicap bet on LIVERPOOL (home team), then if LIVERPOOL wins (official result), the bet will be settled as won. In the event that the match ends in a draw (official result) the bet will be settled as half void and half lost and in the event that CHELSEA wins (official result) the bet will be settled as lost.

Example 3: In the same match (LIVERPOOL vs CHELSEA), if you place a -0.75 Asian Handicap bet on LIVERPOOL, then LIVERPOOL must win by at least two (2) goals for your bet to be settled as a winner. If LIVERPOOL wins by just one goal against CHELSEA then your bet will be settled as half won and half void. If the game ends in a draw or if CHELSEA wins (official result) then your bet will be settled as lost.

Asian Goals Over/Under

Asian Goal Over/Under markets are markets where you can bet on the total number of goals in a match or a half depending on the market options. Asian Over/Under can be integers, decimals, or combinations of the two. For each Asian Over/Under line (0.25, 0.50, 0.75, 1.00 etc.), the amount you bet is split equally and placed as two separate bets.

Example 1: If you place a bet on the 'Asian Over 2.25 Goals' market on the aforementioned LIVERPOOL vs CHELSEA match, then you need three (3) or more goals for your bet to be settled as a winner. If no goals are scored or only one goal is scored (official result) then your bet will be settled as lost. In the event that two (2) goals are scored (official result), then the bet will be settled as half void and half lost.

Example 2: In the same match (LIVERPOOL vs CHELSEA), if you place a bet on the 'Asian Under 1.75 goals' market, your bet will be settled as a win if not more than one (1) goal is scored (official result). However, if three (3) or more goals have been scored according to the official result, then your bet is lost. If the total goals are two (2) then your bet will be settled as half void and half lost.

In the event of a game being abandoned prior to its completion, then all bets will be settled as void, except those already judged and settled.

Asian Handicap, Live Betting

Live bets placed on the Asian Handicap markets will be settled based on the score for the remainder of the game or half time once the bet has been placed. The score at the time of placing a bet does not count towards the settlement of bets.

Example: If, in the 1st half of the match LIVERPOOL vs CHELSEA, the score is 1-0 and you place a bet on LIVERPOOL -0.5 (1-0), then the game must end with LIVERPOOL beating CHELSEA by at least two (2) goals difference (2-0, 3-0, 3-1, 4-2 etc.) for the bet to be won. Any other score means the bet will be settled as lost.

Asian Goals Over/Under, Live Betting

For the settlement of bets placed on Asian Goal Over/Under markets, the score counts from the start of the match.

Example: If, in the 1st half of a LIVERPOOL vs CHELSEA match, the score is 1-0 and you place a bet on Over 2.25 goals, then for your bet to win, three (3) or more goals must be scored in the match (eg 2-1, 1-2, 2-2 etc.). If the game ends with two (2) goals on aggregate then the bet will be settled as half lost and half void.

Soccer	GENERAL RULES: R1: Bookings: All bets regarding cards or punishment points are settled after the end of the game regardless if the bet was placed pre-match or live. In case of a 2nd yellow card which leads to a red card 3 cards or/and 35 points or/and 3 bookings will be awarded, for example in a game player A is awarded a yellow card in the 30th minute and is then awarded a 2nd yellow card in the 80th minute which leads to a red card considering that no other cards were awarded then 3 cards or/and 35 points or/and 3 bookings are allocated. Cards awarded to training staff and/or players who do not participate in the game at that moment, do not count for winnings settling purposes. R2: Bets regarding goal scorers (except from bet type "Anytime Goalscorer"): in case the particular player does not participate in the match or in case the goal is scored before the player enters the game, the bet is considered to be void, even in case of combination bets. R3: Bets regarding the minute or minute intervals when the goal will be scored: If the goal is scored in the X minute and 0-59 seconds then it will be considered that the bet was placed in the X+1 minute, e.g. if the goal was scored in the 27th minute and 34 seconds, then it will be considered that the goal was scored in the 28th minute. R4: x,y,z, correspond to variable values e.g. X halftime stands for 1st or 2nd halftime. In the bets which are offered there is clarification of what they refer to. R5: The bet "Draw No Bet" refers always to the normal duration of the match expect if differently stated. R6: The bets regarding the team which will score (first, last etc.), in the case of own goal this will count for the team which benefits from this.		MAXIMUM PAYOUT

BetBuilder Regulations

1. General: The BetBuilder is a bet that gives you the opportunity of combining several different selections (as listed analytically below) from the same event, in your bet slip. For example, in the supposed match MAN UTD – LIVERPOOL you can combine in your bet slip MAN UTD to win the match, MAN UTD to

	win over X corners, MAN UTD to score over X goals etc 1.1 BetBuilder bets placed on football are valid for 90 minutes plus stoppage time, unless otherwise expressly stated whereby extra time and the penalty shootout process will also apply. Also BetBuilder bets placed on other sports are valid for their normal duration unless something different is expressly stated on the basis of which the extension will also apply or any other procedure that may arise to determine the outcome of the event. The event officials determine whether the full 90 minutes plus stoppage time will be played, and all bets stand unless the match is deemed to have been abandoned (please see 1.7) or postponed (please see 1.8). 1.2 Any reference to "bet" refers to the entire content of a BetBuilder bet on a particular match. Any reference to a 'selection' is in reference to one selection within the related bet. A BetBuilder bet is the total bet bound by all selections. 1.3 If a selection in the BetBuilder bet of a particular match, for any reason, is settled as a unit (void) and the remaining selections win, then the entire BetBuilder bet of that particular match will be settled as a unit. If there is even one losing selection in the BetBuilder bet of a particular match, then regardless of whether any of the remaining selections are settled as void, for any reason, then the entire BetBuilder bet of that particular match will be settled as lost. 1.4 The BetBuilder bet can be placed on its own as a single bet or combined with another BetBuilder bet, or with other independent selections from other matches. It can also be used in permutations. The BetBuilder bet may be available for cash out as cash out is offered at the time. 1.5 In the event of obvious errors in Betbuilder's odds, we reserve the right to cancel or reverse the settlement and correct the odds on all bets bearing such incorrect odds (General Betting Rules / Condition 1.14). Obvious error in the odds other than what is understood in the General Betting Regulations / Condition 1.14 are considered odds substantially different from those that were available in the general market at the time the bet was placed as well as clearly incorrect odds given the possibility that the event has already been decided bet when the bet was placed. We also reserve the right to void all bets on events that have changed venue after the odds have been issued. 1.6 All markets will be settled based on the result of the match on the day it is played and completed. Any results subsequently changed, for example disputed goals, penalty reviews, overturning of results for ineligible players, will not change the settlement of the market. 1.7 If a match is abandoned, any selections where the result has already been decided, e.g. half time result or first team to score will stand. All other selections will be considered void, regardless of the score at the time of abandonment. Abandoned matches will be considered those matches which were interrupted and not restarted by midnight local time of the same day.
